

ROBERT AT McDONALDSVILLE.

A Man Who Stole a Suit of Clothes Now in Jail.

The town of McDonaldsville was considerably stirred up Sunday by a robbery which occurred at the boarding house owned by Samuel Brucher. A man who gave his name as Marion McNe came to the house and engaged board. During the day he went upstairs, and entering the room of Jacob Brucher helped himself to a suit of clothes and an overcoat. He put the suit on under his own suit and started out. The theft was soon discovered and the alarm given. The citizens turned out en masse to capture the sneak thief. One of the inmates of Mr. Brucher's house, who to the stable and discovered the man, who at once started to run. After a long chase he was caught in a wheatfield by George Van Buren, Constable M. J. Metz took him in charge and he was taken before Justice J. J. Snyder, who after hearing the evidence, bound him over to common pleas court in lieu of the $200. The bail was not furnished and the man is now in jail.

CLOSED BY THE SHERIFF.

Phil Dattlebaum's Store Taken Possession of by Sheriff Kridner.

This afternoon Sheriff Kridner came over from the county seat and took possession of Phil Dattlebaum's store, on claims that were presented by Adolph Goodman, Sigismund Hayes & Co., St. Schelling and others. The total liabilities are about $3,000 and Mr. Dattlebaum estimates the assets at about $5,000. The sheriff's sale was held on part of the stock, in favor of Canton parties, about two hours before the arrival of the Sheriff and the closing of the store was not unexpected. Phil states that he had luck all dates from the time of the two years ago when he occupied the Reynolds corner. (Alliance Review.)

TUSCARAWAS VALLEY MINERS.

A Mass Meeting Held at Massillon—Postponement of the Eight Hour Movement Endorsed.

A Massillon special says: A mass meeting of the miners of the Tuscarawas valley was held here today. John B. Rue, national president of the United Mine Workers and State President John P. Jones addressed the assemblage and a resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the action of the executive board in postponing the time for enforcing the eight hour movement.

Queer Sensation at Apple Creek.

APPLE CREEK, O., June 9.—There is a novel sensation at Apple Creek, seven miles below here. On the evening of May 11 Will R. Erick, eldest son of Jacob Erick, the wealthiest citizen of Wooster, was wedded at Apple Creek by Rev. Barnett to Miss Stella B. Mowery, the very pretty daughter of Dr. M. E. Mowery. On reaching Wooster the night of their marriage the bride returned to the home of her parents, and the groom repaired to his own apartments. The bride is still at Apple Creek and will not live with Erick, but the cause is not known. Erick, although less than thirty, has already been twice divorced. Mrs. Erick says that she was "at home and at home to stay." A petition for divorce will be filed at once.

The Wets Win.

Election on local option was held at Randolph, Saturday. The "wets" carried the day by a majority of 40. (Alliance Review.)

Thousands die yearly from some form of kidney disease. When this dreaded disorder is suspected no time should be lost, but take Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the safest and most successful specific for kidney, liver and urinary complaints. For sale by Durbin, Wright & Co.
